Pope's death marks prophetic milestone

The final warning!

<http://www.nostradamusprophecy.org>

The death of this pope, John Paul II, during the reign of the "King of Terror" and the election of German cardinal Ratzinger (member of the Hitler Youth and served in the Nazi Luftwaffe in World War II) as his successor pope in support of Bush's War of Terror, is explicitly prophesied by Nostradamus and Malachy as the turning point and ominous portent heralding the impending invasion of Iran (Persia) and the nuking of New York City and other major world metropolis' to be likewise consumed in the on-rushing fires of the spreading War on (of) Terror.

In Century VI Quatrain 49 Nostradamus calls this new pope a "War Pope" - "The great Pontiff of the party of Mars"- Mars being the God of War.

Others have likened this "War Pope" to a "Black Pope" meaning one in favor of war that has the black heart.

Further, in Century VII Quatrain 22, he names the people of the Muslim lands of "Mesopotamia", which includes Syria, Iraq and Iran, as the targeted peoples of the war aggression which is already upon us now. Edgar Leoni comments concerning the War Pope of Century VI Quatrain 49: "A Papal crusade against Moslem invaders appears to be indicated here" (Leoni, p. 664), thus showing the alliance of the new pope with the Bush War on Terror, which primarily focuses on Muslim "terrorists" that have invaded Western soil, such as the 9-11 attacks.

Nostradamus explicitly prophesies the precise time-frame for this transition of papal power and authority, playing into the hands of the new world order elite, and assembling the people to the battle of Armageddon that takes place now at the death of the "non-Italian pope" ("pontefice barbaro") who will become sick in "February" of 2005, Iran Next!!

"Then the sixth angel [Quddus whose shrine is in Iran (Persia)] sounded: And I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar which is before God, saying to the sixth angel [Quddus] who had the trumpet, 'Release the four angels who are bound at the great river Euphrates [Iraq].' So the four angels, who had been prepared for the hour and day and month and year, were released to kill a third of mankind." (Revelation 9:13-15)

In the Book of Revelation, the sixth angel is Quddus, the establisher of the Bab, and is symbolic of Iran or Persia, where just last year his shrine was desecrated in Barfarush in Northern Iran. The current plan to Invade Iran, as we have pointed out before, is tied up with these prophecies concerning the sixth angel, Quddus, of Iran.

The Bible is clear, that from the "sixth angel" (Quddus in Iran) will come the call to release the four winds of destruction that are held back at the River Euphrates which flows through Iraq. According to Scott Ritter, US plans for Iran invasion have already been "signed off" by Bush for June, 2005. Iran, cont. on pg. 2

The Middle East is a board game for “supremacy.” The former national security advisor for President Jimmy Carter, founder of the Trilateralist Commission, and American foreign policy heavyweight, Zbigniew Brezezinski, wrote a book in ‘99 called the “Grand Chessboard” subtitled something like “American Primacy and its Geostrategic Imperatives”. The book describes United States foreign policy for the 21st century and compares it to a game of chess and how the US can win the game.

The goal, he states, is not only to maintain the current state of American political, economic, and military primacy (hegemony) in the world, but to increase and expand our influence to the areas of the globe in which we lack influence and power--the ultimate prize of the “Grand Chessboard” being central Asia. This region (central Asia, which includes the Caspian region and the former Russian states like Uzbekistan, Kazakhstan etc.) is not only one of the earth’s richest in terms of natural resources (more oil buried in Russia than all the Middle East) but historically has proven itself to be, in Brezezinski’s terms, “the Pivot of World Power.” In order for the US to take this pivotal area and thus control world power, he claims, first the US must control the “Southern zone”-- Iraq, Iran, Syria, Saudi Arabia, --the Middle East, which historically has been very unstable. Thus, the Middle East is only one stage in a game of checkmate for total world domination. This is from the mouth of the US policy architect himself!

With that in mind, taking complete control of the Middle East is only part of the whole picture. That the US has its sights on Iran is not disputed by any major US foreign policy analyst; the only questions are how and when.

Comedy ruse aimed at Baha'i faith backfires!

By Colin

A humorist based in Aspen, Colorado made headlines a while back trying to capitalize on a brief stint as a BUPC back in the early 90's, by making a stand-up comedy routine based on his time in the faith.

His show was created in an attempt to gain a spot in the HBO comedy festival, an international comedy event put on in Aspen every year.

His theme was "Jesus in Montana?" (or something like that) in which he proceeded to make many juvenile oneliners and hallucinogenic drug references, which were primarily comedic excuses about why he managed to briefly believe in something that wasn't mainstream.

The Aspen Times gave him a four-page full color spread (trying to support the local guy getting into the 'fest, I guess) in which many misnomers and misunderstandings about our Faith were published.

The following article that was published from us, then, is written in refutation of his depiction of us as doomsayers and fringe cultists.

Aspen Times
March, 17, 2005

Humorist B.S. has recently made headlines with his one-man-show "Jesus in Montana." True, most wannabe Jesus stories make for good humor. B. even says, "the story writes itself." But the return of Jesus in Montana is a reality more incredible than fiction.

In his interview with the Times, B. is right about the return of Jesus. As a Baha'i Under the Provisions of the Covenant, I am 100 percent behind him telling the world about the return of Jesus in Montana. As Jesus said on his return, "It doesn't matter if they are talking good about us or bad about us, as long as they are talking about us."

B. says in the article, "It wasn't supposed to be about charisma. It was about studying the prophecies." This is correct. The prophecies are what led many Jews to accept Jesus on his first coming. But others, because Jesus didn't fulfill their expectations, nailed him to the cross. Today, Jesus has appeared the same way he did 2000 years ago, by fulfilling prophecy, not people's expectations.

"Today, Jesus has appeared the same way he did 2000 years ago, by fulfilling prophecy, not people's expectations."

Doc never claimed to be Jesus Christ. He is not Jesus Christ reincarnated. He is not Jesus of Nazareth. The return of Jesus is not the return of Christ. Doc is the return of Jesus the High Priest (great educator) after the order of Melchizedek.

The Bible says that Jesus of Nazareth was a sperm descendant of King David through his father Joseph. This is why he was called Christ. The word Christ comes from the Greek Christos, which is a translation of the Hebrew Messiah or, more completely Messiah-ben-David. The word Christ means: an anointed male sperm descendent of King David.

Bible prophecy says the Christ-lineage will continue forever. Psalms 89 tells us that God promised David that his throne would last as long as the sun will last. Because of this prophecy, people like DaVinci Code author Dan Brown, purport Jesus' lineage continued through a secret relationship with Mary Magdalene, whose descendants became some of the European kings and queens. But Jesus did not sit on David's throne and he had no descendants. Hence his words from the Gospel of John, "My kingdom is not of this world."

Prophecy says that another Christ would come, one seated on the throne of David, from the bloodline of Christ; that is the bloodline of King David. The second Christ would have a "government on his shoulder," which is the kingdom of God on earth as it is in heaven that Jesus told his disciples to pray for in the Lord's Prayer. An actual government promised to bring peace to the earth. Baha'u'llah, founder of the Baha'i faith, fulfills the prophecies for the second Christ. His name in English means Glory of the Father. Baha'u'llah is a male sperm descendant of David, seated on David's throne, whose lineage and bloodline can be traced all the way back to Solomon and King David.

When the reins of authority in the Baha'i faith were usurped through deception and deceit by those who sought to end the Davidic lineage of the bloodline of Christ continued in the sons and grandsons of Baha'u'llah, Jesus returned, fulfilling explicit Bible prophecy. The light of the Son returned to establish his Father's, Baha'u'llah's, Kingdom. His mission was to educate people through scientific proof and evidence on the continuation of the Davidic lineage and to establish the government of God brought by the second Christ, Baha'u'llah.

The way we recognize the kingdom of God on earth is by the presence of the living Davidic king, who distinguishes it from fakes, frauds, and imitations.

'Abdu'l-Baha, son of Baha'u'llah and seated on David's throne, came to the Rocky Mountains in 1912 when he journeyed through America. While here, he spoke of their unique nature, and instructed his only son to move the family there during the time of the Great Catastrophe, which is upon us now.

Today, 'Abdu'l-Baha's great-grandson continues the throne of David here in the Rocky Mountains as the President of Baha'u'llah's Universal House of Justice, the "House of the Lord" spoken of in the book of Isaiah, Chapter 2.

The current crises in the world today, which are prophesied extensively, are no laughing matter! The return of Jesus, who appeared in the prophesied seven-towered Temple of Ezekiel in Deer Lodge, Montana, warned the people of impending catastrophe should the world continue on its current course. He educated people about the reality of the Bible and sought to destroy the mythologies that keep people from using their intellects to find the truth—free of charge.

Jesus on his return and those he educated have been warning the people of impending calamity for decades. But the calamities he warns of are not the end of the world. This time we are living in is the end of a corrupt and selfish age of materialism whose apex is thermonuclear World War III in which one-third of mankind will be killed in one hour. The book of Revelation says, "Release the four angels who are bound at the great river Euphrates. So the four angels were released, who had been held ready for the hour, the day, the month, and the year, to kill a third of mankind." (Rev. 9:14-15)

Bible prophecy may seem funny to some. But when one ponders that the river Euphrates runs through the center of Iraq, and Osama bin Laden—known by the CIA to have nukes—has been given the green light by Muslim clergy to use them, it should become clear that this should be investigated for validity rather than promoted for humor. This current crisis in the Middle East has only increased the hostility between east and west, being motivated by corrupt religion and oil profit greed.

In the '90's, many people, including Michael Moore and Harper's Magazine, thought it would be fun to laugh at these warnings and make a mockery of it. Reflect. Is it so funny that innocent blood is being continually shed upon the globe while the unheeded predictions of the return of Jesus and those he educated are daily being fulfilled? The Baha'is, educated by the Return of Jesus, published well before its occurrence in broadcast and in print, the date, place, perpetrators, and the nature and reasons for the 9-11 event from prophecy recorded in the Bible.

The calamities are not written in stone. The reason the prophecies are given is so people can turn to righteousness and justice and avoid the calamity. The message that the return of Jesus promotes is that peace on earth can be attained by the implementation of the Baha'i Peace Plan. Among its principles are the end of prejudice in all forms, the absolute equality of men and women, the essential harmony of science and religion, the implementation of a universal language, a spiritual solution to the economic problem, the oneness of humanity, the foundation of all religions recognized as one, universal education, the promotion of the independent search for truth and finally, that humanity must form an international tribunal with equal representation of all nations with binding treaties and covenants so the people of the world may settle its disputes at a conference table instead of with weapons of mass destruction.

The Christ-promised Kingdom of God on earth has come! The bloodline of Christ through Baha'u'llah and 'Abdu'l-Baha continues to this day. It is being promulgated worldwide from the prophesied New Jerusalem of the Rocky Mountains of America. Twelve interstate gates, here in the Rockies, surround us. The return of Jesus the high priest proclaimed his mission from the prophesied seven-towered Ezekiel's Temple in Deer Lodge, Montana in the north. In the southern Rockies, Chair Mountain ("Great White Throne Judgement" Rev. Ch. 20) and the Crystal River Valley signify the Rockies' connection to the Throne of King David and the bloodline of Christ (Davidic kingship) of Abdu'l-Baha and his historical visit, as well as his great-grandson who promulgates the education and teachings of the return of Jesus from here.

"Then he showed me the river of the water of life, bright as crystal, flowing from the throne and of the Lamb ..." (Rev. 22:1).

Baha'u'llah's Revelation is security of all nations

"The religion of God and His Law is the greatest cause and mightiest means for the appearance and effulgence of the orb of unity. The development of the world, the training of nations, the tranquility of the servants and the security of the people of all lands have been due to the divine precepts and ordinances."

By Reg

--The Ninth Ishraq, Baha'u'llah.

Reflecting back on the state of the people of the US over the course of my life, I see tranquility and security in general that would not have been there had the Christian religion been absent. Fresh from the oppression of the kings of Europe the immigrants to the new world made a constitution that protected them from the treachery of unjust rulers. Those immigrants created a nation under God with an eye toward growth and change. Men weren't in constant danger of losing inventions and capital to the king. The US led the world in many ways. With Christianity now going through the very real throes of death, the religion is being used in ever darker ways to manipulate and control the minds and hearts.

"We ask the manifestors of the divine power, that is, kings and leaders, to endeavor; perchance discord may vanish and the world be illumined with the light of accord. All must adhere to and practice that which hath been revealed from the Supreme Pen. The true One testifies and the atoms of the universe bear witness that We have spoken and revealed in Tablets and Epistles from the Supreme Pen that which is conducive to the exaltation, elevation, training, protection and progress of the people of the earth."
(The Ninth Ishraq, Baha'u'llah)

In the beginning of the age of Divine Justice for all, the people of the dead religions resist the brilliance of Baha'u'llah's Revelation. That resistance can only be darkness since the source of the Radiant truth is One.

The people of those religions are, though usually not actively involved, caught up in murder and oppression, theft and deception. Like all living things religions have had life, and afterwards the corruption of the body leading to death. It's not to say of course that in their day those religions weren't vital and effective means to evolve humanity as intended by God.

"Why has the corruption spread across the ages and not yet, as promised, come to an end? It is only that the humanity of Earth continues to deny the Revelation of Baha'u'llah. Only because the people of Earth stubbornly refuse to follow the Divine Counsel and obey the laws set in place for their ultimate good."

To the contrary, they were, as intended by God, the very source of forward movement in the world of homo sapiens.

One interesting feature of the dying religions that stands out is the sense of indignant righteousness that people on both sides exhibit toward each other. They have been dedicated by choice to the trumpeting and the flash of weapons of war, the signs of the end of one age and beginning of the next. Because of what they embrace they descend into bedlam. On the field of Armageddon they will do each other to death.

Separated from the Light of Truth they can only behave as they do. They are not unified even within their own ranks, but the minority that holds power manipulates, to good effect, fewer in number than the majority to embrace the blood thirsty sentiments of their warmongering. As Abe Lincoln said, "You can fool some of the people some of the time and all of the people some of the time but you can't fool all the people all of the time." What he didn't explain was that you don't have to fool most of the people to get your way in a nation. Just excite a few to rattle the sabers and generate fear in the others and you have a nation of sheep in your hands. Even if most people are against the war, most of them are loath to bring the house down on themselves by crying out against it.

To the rulers who understand and use the precepts of deception, the people are not a sacred trust from God. The people have ever and only wanted security and peace for their families. They are always manipulated into war by the threat of the loss of those things, or by wars or catastrophe brought to their very doorsteps by those who have been coerced in some way to rush to molest the innocent.

The powerful of the earth are powerful because they use deception to get their way. President Jackson said that if the US citizens were to suddenly understand national banking

That there is a mainstream media blackout is to be expected when the major news agencies are now proven to be publishing state department press releases verbatim. The facts show that Iran has been a target at least as far back as the '50s when the Shah was installed in a CIA backed coup in '53, and again in 1980 when a journalist for the San Jose Mercury News uncovered and published the plot to invade Iran which caused a delay, and again throughout the 80s when the US backed both sides in the Iran-Iraq war to destabilize the region. This is a technique spoken of by Brezezinski when he said that in order for US interests to succeed in the region, they must ensure that no single power comes to dominate it, but must remain destabilized until the US can take it over either politically and economically like the Far East, or militarily like Iraq-- in other words divide and conquer.)

Now, as our friend in Kuwait has described, with a centralized US Middle East military base in Iraq (troops, armaments, and vehicles amassed at both the border of Syria and Iran) and the resources available to seize the entire region, you can bet it's going to happen.

Right now, the only thing holding it back is US popular opinion. This will all change rapidly when NYC is nuked, and the "Heathen" Muslims are blamed, and the King of Terror, George "God wants me to be president" Bush, and his empire will strike back with unmitigated force on the whole region fulfilling the plans that have been on the ready for decades.

All of these things are well documented such that no impartial observer who investigates them can fail to recognize:

Ritter made two shocking claims: George W. Bush has "signed off" on plans to bomb Iran in June 2005, and the U.S. manipulated the results of the Jan. 30 elections in Iraq... Ritter said plans for a June attack on Iran have been submitted to President George W. Bush, and that the president has approved them. ... Its purported goal is the destruction of Iran's alleged program to develop nuclear weapons, but Ritter said neoconservatives [neocons] in the administration also expected that the attack would set in motion a chain of events leading to regime change in the oil-rich nation of 70 million -- a possibility Ritter regards with the greatest skepticism... On Jan. 17, the New Yorker posted an article by Hersh entitled "The Coming Wars" (New Yorker, January 24-31, 2005).

"...for the Bush administration, 'The next strategic target [is] Iran.'"

In it, the well-known investigative journalist claimed that for the Bush administration, "The next strategic target [is] Iran." Hersh also reported that: "The Administration has been conducting secret reconnaissance missions inside Iran at least since last summer." According to Hersh, "Defense Department civilians, under the leadership of Douglas Feith, have been working with Israeli planners and consultants to develop and refine potential nuclear, chemical- weapons, and missile targets inside Iran. Strategists at the headquarters of the U.S. Central Command, in Tampa, Florida, have been asked to revise the military's war plan, providing for a maximum ground and air invasion of Iran. . . . The hawks in the administration believe that it will soon become clear that the Europeans' negotiated approach

[to Iran] cannot succeed, and that at that time the administration will act. (Mark Jensen, UFPPC, Saturday, 19 February 2005)

Concerning Scott Ritter and how he is aware of these things: Usually when these types of articles are written that say things like "the president signed off" and "June 2005" one can usually bank on them not occurring on those dates.

Scriptures and prophecy are a better source for dates of calamity and victory, as their accuracy has been proven time and again. On the other hand, these articles are good to read because the scenarios and the players in the scenarios are often accurate. That Douglas Feith and high level Israelis are coordinating on the attack plan is no surprise, as it's well documented that Feith and Wolfowitz and others with deep connections to Israel authored the Iraq invasion from their posts in the Pentagon, with Israeli input.

Ariel Sharon has recently flown into Bush's Texas ranch to have a barbeque and talk domination of the Middle East. This is no coincidence, as the attack on Iran was on the table at the same time the papacy was in transition to a possible pro-war stance as well.

The main point is that the prophecies are to be fulfilled. As the fifth angel is Ali, whose tomb is in Iraq, so the sixth angel is Quddus whose tomb is in Iran. In past issues of The Noonday Sun, as well as on MCAT television shows back in the 1990s, we have pointed out that according to prophecy Iran is the next major target, for total domination of the Middle East.

These days of Ridvan upon us, coupled with the rapid change in world events, shall bring great advancement for the Cause of God.

and die in April of that same year, to be immediately preceded and followed by a great “quaking of the earth” which is the twin aftershocks of the Indonesia meteor strike event, the 8.7 on March 29 (3 days before the pope’s death on April 2) and the second quake 6.0 on April 10, the day following the pope’s burial.

Nostradamus furthermore gives the exact timing and dating of this pivotal event of the death of the pope and transition to new papal authority, by stating this even shall transpire at the same time that “the bones and tomb (sepulture) of the great Roman” are uncovered. The tomb of St. Paul, who had Roman citizenship and was therefore the first Roman to ever be converted to Christianity, was discovered and publicly announced by the Vatican press agency as of February 16, 2005, at the same time as the Pope’s first February illness and his receipt of the catheter that led to urinary tract infection and blood-poisoning from septic shock that stopped his heart.

Nostradamus (Century III, Quatrain 65) explicitly reveals:

*Quand le sepulcre du grand Roman trouve,
Le jour après sera élu Puntife:
Du Senate guetre il ne sera prouve Empoisonne, son sang au sacre scyphe
When the tomb of the great Roman [Paul] is found,
After that day [February 16, 2005]
another Pontiff will be elected,
Of the Senate (Conclave) scarcely
he will not be established Poison his [predecessors’] blood with the “sacre scyphe” siphoning of the sacrum [i.e. insertion of a catheter; “siphon”*

*inserted in the urethra or area of the “sacrum” the pelvic region of the spine]
(Century III, Quatrain 65)*

Here, Nostradamus tells us that it will be blood poisoning “Empisonne son sang” or “Poison in his blood” caused by the insertion of the “sacre scyphe” or “sacrum siphon”, which can only be a catheter or siphon or tube-drain inserted into the area of the pelvis, that is for draining the bladder which sits near the bones of the sacrum in the pelvis, that shall kill the pope.

Nostradamus, being a medical doctor, was well aware of this type of procedure as well as the location of the bladder and the urethra and genitals in the area of the sacrum, of which siphon we today call “catheter”.

The problems arose after the pope suffered septic shock, or blood poisoning and the collapse of his blood vessels, when a urinary tract infection spread to his bloodstream Thursday afternoon (Experts: Pope’s chance of surviving septic shock is slim, Rome, April 1, 1002).

Nostradamus further goes on to specify and explicitly reveal that this will be a non-Italian pope who shall be in power during the time of the “King of Terror” who shall die. Nostradamus specifically names the month of February that “shall bring mortality”, which is when the pope first became ill and received his catheter.

Nostradamus moreover gives the exact day of the year in which this took place, which is the same exact date (February 16, 2005) of the announcement of the discovery of the tomb of St.

Paul, “sepulcher of the great Roman”, who founded the Roman Church. The Calendar of Nostradamus’ day was the Julian calendar, which was then changed in the later 1500s to the Gregorian calendar by adding ten days. In order to bring his dates current with our Gregorian calendar, ten days must be added making February 6th (Julian), February 16th (Gregorian), the exact dating of this Signal Event, the announcement of the discovery of the tomb of Paul on Wednesday, February 16, 2005, between the pope’s two February, 2005 illnesses in early February and later when he received his throat tracheotomy (another type of siphon “scyphe”), having already received the catheter for his urinary problems from his first illness that led to the blood poisoning and his ultimate death in April spanned by two quakes, which Nostradamus likewise prophesied.

*Au fondement de la nouvelle sect, Seront les os du grand Romain
trouves,
Sepulcre en marbre apparaitra
couverte,
Terre trembler en Avril, mal
enfouez
At the foundation of the new sect [the death of one pope and the election of another],
The bones of the great Roman [Paul] will be found [February
2005]
A sepulcher covered by marble will appear;
Earth to Quake in April, bad
burial. (Century VI, Quatrain 66)*

Thus Nostradamus gives the month of the pope’s death, and the day and the month of the pope’s burial.

On Jesus' first coming, the ridicules and condemnations heaped upon that blessed soul are well known. The people called him gluttonous and a winebibber, sharing meals with tax collectors and sinners. They mocked his claims, misconstrued his aims, and denied his warnings. They said: "Is not this Jesus of Nazareth son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How can he say therefore, I came down from heaven?" Today (2000 years later), the influence of that glorious personage is undeniable, claiming one-third of the population of the earth as followers.

Now is the time to investigate! The Baha'is Under the Provisions of the Covenant offer a series of free classes with no obligation. One's beliefs must be based on proof and evidence and rooted in reality; otherwise it is nothing more than superstition. For more information on the return of Jesus and the coming of the second Christ, visit us on the web at www.bupc.org. Investigate now before it is too late.

Sincerely,

Colin ب

"As this movement gains momentum, as it receives added impetus from the attitude and future action of the civil authorities in Persia, it will inevitably manifest its repercussions in the West and will rouse the leaders of the Church and finally the civil authorities to challenge the claims and eventually to recognize the independent status of the Religion of Bahá'u'lláh.... Our adversaries in the East have initiated the struggle. Our future opponents in the West will, in their turn, arise and carry it a stage further. Ours is the duty, in anticipation of this inevitable contest, to uphold unequivocally and with undivided loyalty the integrity of our Faith and demonstrate the distinguishing features [guardianship - Will and Testament of 'Abdu'l-Baha, pg. 14] of its divinely appointed institutions.

The pope died on April 2, 2005, after the mega March 29, 8.7 aftershock quake, and was buried on April 8, 2005, that day being dated by the tremendous aftershock quake again in Sumatra at 6.0. Yet unlike the December 23 Tsunami, these quakes were just as large, in the same spot, but no Tsunami.

Why? No simultaneous meteor strike.

The discovery of Paul's tomb is found etched in marble as well, giving the month of February when the pope first became sick and received the blood poisoning infection that led to his septic shock that eventually killed him.

Archeologists discover St Paul's tomb

From cathnews.com: Archeologists discover St Paul's tomb.

Vatican archeologists believe that they have identified the tomb in Rome's St. Paul Outside the Walls basilica, following the discovery of a stone coffin during excavations carried out over the past three years.

Catholic World News reports that a sarcophagus - or stone coffin - which may contain the remains of St. Paul has been identified in the basilica, according to Giorgio Filippi, a archeology specialist with the Vatican Museums.

foisted upon them by European interests there would be a revolution by morning. President Roosevelt knew of, and encouraged, the impending attack on Pearl Harbor knowing it would move US public sentiment toward war.

Politicians lied nationwide as to the ratification or lack thereof relative to the income tax (non) laws. The nation was secretly taken into bankruptcy in 1938 with high-level judges and lawyers being told to be silent about it. The result was the holding of all US citizens as surety for the payment of the debt to the creditors to whom the US was in bankruptcy. The deliberate 1967 attack on the USS Liberty by the Israelis was pushed under the rug because, as Lyndon Johnson said, he didn't want to embarrass an allied nation and there is no lack of evidence that he and other high level people approved in advance.

The School of the Americas in Georgia is used to train murderers and torturers so that US corporations may have their way in South and Central America.

The CIA runs the drug trade in America but anyone who publicly declares that kind of thing is likely to shoot themselves in the head twice to commit suicide. Take this last paragraph and append to it the exponent of 15 raising it to the 15th power and you have the approximate dimension of the perfidy committed in the name of God, justice, truth, righteousness and all virtue for the sake of enslaving those who are ruled.

One difference between a just society and a corrupt one is the transparent nature of the governance.

If the governing body must get their way through lies and cheating they are little interested in the tranquility of the people. Instead they are bent on profit and power for themselves.

Here, now, we live in a world whose dominant feature is corruption. It is tricky to see because it is brought to you by the masters of deception. In the US people are less aware than in third world countries of the under world. In third world countries it is in your face. Here it is hidden under a "velvet glove", a nice covering for the faint of heart, a trick for the benefit of those who believe in embracing virtue and that loving your neighbor is a good idea.

The flip side of that is: If your neighbor loveth you not then it is incumbent upon you to make war on him. When finally, people are convinced that the neighbor doesn't have the same orientation toward God, country, city, family and self, it's easy to get the blood boiling and the weapons to the work of the massacre of innocents. Divide and conquer.

Once the people of a nation, the US for instance, are persuaded that the neighbor loveth them not it is easy to bring them further down the garden path to ruin; i.e., denial of the very thing that will save them. After all, they must deny Jesus and in doing so they cut themselves off from their salvation that can be found in the Holy utterances of Jesus. His Holiness, Christ Jesus, foretold the coming of the Establisher of the Kingdom of God on Earth.

Dr. Leland Jensen is a key element of the Plan of God for the establishment of Justice and Peace on Earth.

Dr. Jensen established the Revelation of Baha'u'llah by upholding the Covenant of Baha'u'llah and the Will and Testament of Abdu'l-Baha at a time when the Baha'i world abandoned the truth therein. Dr. Jensen, upon authority from God, upheld the precepts of those Holy Ones and educated all comers as to their absolute importance to the safety, security and salvation of humanity.

It isn't necessary to trammel the length and breadth of the mind or the history of the ungodly to understand the Revelation of Baha'u'llah. It may help though to see the depth of the results of turning away from God enough to understand how badly wrong things have gone for the people of the Earth. Why is deception so effective?

Because as religious salt-of-the-earth working people, we don't understand the use of deception. We are easy prey, calves to the slaughter. The aims and amorality of the powerful do not even occur to us.

If you don't know what cold is, how can you understand hot? In this world of opposites we take our reference points from the opposites. That is why it makes sense to take the measure of the people of the earth, looking at the extremities, the middle, the whole thing. How can you help to effect healing if you don't understand the disease?

Why has the corruption spread across the ages and not yet, as promised, come to an end? It is only that the humanity of Earth continues to deny the Revelation of Baha'u'llah. Only because the people of Earth stubbornly refuse to follow the Divine Counsel and obey the laws set in place for their ultimate good.

"An initial survey enabled archeologists to reconstruct the shape of the original basilica, built early in the 4th century," Catholic World News reported. The article continues: "A second excavation, under the main altar of the basilica, brought the Vatican team to the sarcophagus, which was located on what would have been ground level for the original 4th-century building. Under the altar was a marble plaque still visible, dating back to the 4th century, and bearing the inscription: 'Apostle Paul, martyr.' Filippi remarks that surprisingly, 'Nobody ever thought to look behind that plaque.' When the Vatican team looked, they found the sarcophagus. (Catholic World News, February, 2005)

Inscription on marble plaque:
'Apostle Paul, Martyr'.

Archaeologist Filippi remarks that surprisingly, "Nobody ever thought to look behind that plaque." The discovery of the tomb and bones of Apostle Paul, whom Nostradamus calls the great Roman, exactly date the time and transition from Pope John Paul II to the next pope who comes now at the appointed hour of Armageddon.

These prophecies are so darn accurate; in fact, Pope John Paul II was the first non-Italian pope since the lifetime of Nostradamus himself 455 years ago, when the last non-Italian pope, circa 1522 AD, was Pope Hadrian VI!

Nostradamus was therefore very, very familiar with the term "pontefice barbaro", which is the official Italian title for the non-Italian pope, and so he prophesied the death of Pope John Paul II using this title, again stating that the sickness would occur in February, 2005, that would bring his ultimate death.

The month and year of February, 2005, is explicitly revealed by Nostradamus in the same Quatrain (Century 8 Quatrain 49) as well, in an unusual and rare star conjunction, where both Saturn and Mars are seen by the prophet "playing in the waters of the Milky Way" with Saturn by the "cheek" of Taurus, and Mars in Sagittarius.

Considering he explicitly names February as the month of this conjunction and interplay of the planets and constellations in the Milky Way is rare and unique indeed! Taurus and Sagittarius being the only two points of connection and visual contact between the Zodiac stellar band of constellations of the ecliptic through which the planets, such as Saturn and Mars, are seen to travel, and the giant loop of the Milky Way band as visualized from our perspective on earth of the universal galactic disk we call the waters of the Milky Way.

Satur au beouf joue en l'eau, Mars en fleche,

Six de Fevrier mortalite donnera, Ceux de Tardaigne a Bruge si grande breche, Qu'a Ponteroso chef Barbarin mouraa.

Saturn at Taurus plays in the water [Milky Way] with Mars in Sagittarius,

Six [16th] of February will bring mortality,

*Those of "Tardaigne a Bruge" so great a breach,
That Non-Italian Pope has to die.
(Century VIII, Quatrain 49)*

Here Nostradamus states that the Non-Italian pope has to die. This due to the "great breach", like those of "Tardaigne" and "Bruge", which are references to the schism and division within the Catholic Church and Christian World throughout history, that eventually led to the creation of many Protestant sects at the time of Martin Luther, which is when Nostradamus lived. In fact, Martin Luther himself was officially excommunicated on January 3, 1521 by Pope Leo X, who was immediately succeeded by the last non-Italian Pope Hadrian VI, who reigned a little over one year (January 1522 to September 1523), and who had inherited the tremendous schism that had thus been created.

The term "Ponteroso chef Barbarin" is Nostradamus' trademark and signature style translation of the Italian phrase "pontefice barbaro" with the addition of the explicit term "Chief", which he has used in reference to the pope being the leader (chief) of the entire Catholic church.

Thus as the schism of Luther took place during the reign of Hadrian VI, the non-Italian pope of Nostradamus' life-time with no other until 455 years later with John Paul II, Nostradamus sees the influence of the "King of Terror" upon this new and pivotal papal election and how it will effect Armageddon, falling into the plan of God's irrevocable decree, as all the prophecies of God in the Book of Revelation are to be fulfilled to such an extent and degree that no one can deny. The accuracy of the Bible, and Nostradamus who has been inspired by it, is spine chilling in its exactness, and in its awesome fulfillment which will result in one third of mankind being killed in one hour of thermonuclear war, with every American city of population 100,000 or more being the target; it is bloodcurdling to say the least, and sends chills up and down the spine!!

The use of the word “joue” in dating this quatrain has a dual meaning of both “cheek” as a noun, and “to play” as a verb. Thus Nostradamus places Saturn by the “cheek” of Taurus, while at the same time “playing” in the water (l'eau) of the Milky Way. Mars too is also playing with Saturn in the water of the Milky Way but at the opposite side of the Zodiac in Sagittarius. The center of the Milky Way galaxy is located in Sagittarius, while that portion of the Milky Way in Taurus would be considered the outer part or “cheek” of our galaxy as well.

Those of “Tardaigne a Bruge” so great a breach:

The first schism within the church is related to Hippolytus, who is considered in history as the first “antipope”. Antipope, meaning another pope, a rival claimant to papal authority against someone else who is proclaimed pope; thus two popes as leaders of two major factions or breaches of Catholics or Christian peoples. The fight between Hippolytus and finally Pope Pontianus was so cantankerous and disruptive, that Maximinus the Thracian banished both of them to the Tin mines of Sardinia in 235

AD. Thus Nostradamus references the first occurrence of schism and antipope in this quatrain as Tardaigne, deliberately using the letter “T” at the beginning of Sardinia to denote the schism and banishment to the Tin mines where these two, pope and antipope, both died.

Bruges is no exception to this theme of division and split within the people of the church of Christianity, for with the advent of the House of Burgundy in the city of Bruges in 1384, the country of Flanders (now known as Belgium) became involved in the struggle for religious freedom which were then agitating Europe. The new prince, Philip “le Hardi” (1384-1404), openly and fervently backed Robert of Geneva, who was elected to the papacy at Fondi, 20 Sept. 1378, by the French cardinals in opposition to Urban VI, thus making him the first antipope of the Great Schism.

“The accuracy of the Bible, and Nostradamus who has been inspired by it, is spine chilling in its exactness, and in its awesome fulfillment, ...”

Thus by clear references to the Sardinia Tin mines, and the Great Schism backed by Bruges which led to the papacy being in Avignon in France for many years, along with the direct reference to “so great a breach” and the fact that the last non-Italian pope 455 years ago reigned during the time of Nostradamus and Martin Luther, all shows that he has not only explicitly foretold of the death of Pope John Paul II, but has further indicated of the great division or great controversy to now take place within Christianity after his prophesied death.

Bruges is furthermore famous for the Basilica of the Holy Blood, in which the relic of the “Holy Blood” is kept. Legend relates, in an apocryphal gospel, that Joseph of Arimathea preserved the Blood of Christ after he had washed the dead body of Jesus. Tradition states that Count Diedrik van den Elzas brought the relic containing the holy blood back from Jerusalem to the city of Bruges after the second crusade.

Recent investigation, however, dates the relic to at least the 11th or 12th centuries.

Nostradamus was aware of the meaning of the Holy Blood of Christ as it is a symbol for the bloodline of the King David that is promised and prophesied to last forever. By relating the division in Christianity to occur at the death of this pope to Bruges, Nostradamus is further relating the split that shall occur over the acceptance of the lineage and bloodline of Christ, which continues through Baha’u’llah and ‘Abdu’l-Baha; “Baha” meaning “Glory”, versus the pagan doctrines of the Incarnate God Lie upheld by the mainstream peoples defended not only by the Roman Catholic pope but by most all Protestant clergy as well.

They shall be divided on the issue of the Holy Blood, the prophet tells us. That being the bloodline of King David continued through Baha’u’llah and ‘Abdu’l-Baha to this day. The relic of the Holy Blood only being a symbol of the real controversy over the genuine Holy Blood that comes down to us in the lineage and genealogy of Baha’u’llah of the throne-line of kings from David and Solomon on down to today. Pope, cont. on pg. 14

What is the Baha'i faith?

There is but One God, Sufficer of all. God reveals Himself through a succession of Divine Educators who all possess the same Light. There is but One Promise, that humanity will one day abide in peace and harmony with God.

That day draws near as we witness the prophetic events that mark an end to the world's ills, and usher in the springtime of the Kingdom of God on earth.

The Baha'i faith is the fulfillment of the Lord's Prayer: "Thy Kingdom Come, Thy Will be done, on earth as it is in heaven." In the Christian holy writ, Jesus prophesied his own return to fulfill this Promise in 'Baha'u'llah' ('Glory of the Lord' or 'Father' - Mark 8:38 RSV). Jesus spoke Aramaic. Translated, Glory of the Lord, or Father, is Baha'u'llah.

Baha'u'llah fulfills prophecy for the second coming of 'Christ': a male, lineal descendant of David who is anointed. Baha'u'llah's bloodline is rooted in the Davidic kingship as he was a direct, male line descendant of King David who was anointed with the Holy Spirit. The Old Testament promises the continuation of this everlasting throne on earth (Psalms 89).

Baha'u'llah's lineage is integral to the Baha'i faith. In His Book of the Covenant He refers to Himself (this lineage) as the Ancient Root, and in His Proclamation He announces: "The Most Great Law is come, and the Ancient Beauty ruleth upon the Throne of David" (Proclamation of Baha'u'llah, pg. 89).

In turn, Baha'u'llah's direct male line descendants rule upon the Throne continuing this ancient Promise - the first of them being his Son, Abdu'l-Baha, whom he named His Successor and Center of the Cause. From 'Abdu'l-Baha, the ones who continue this lineage are called Guardians, and who are seated as the executive Branch at the head of the true International Baha'i Council/Universal House of Justice (UHJ).

It is to this true UHJ or "House of the Lord" (Isaiah 2:2-6) that all the nations shall flow. The true UHJ is to resolve the difficult problems of the world through Just and Spiritual means.

Baha'u'llah is the Return of Christ, Prince of Peace. The Baha'i firesides, a series of interactive religious discussions, give detailed, scientific proofs for the authenticity of Baha'u'llah's Message. In the same way the first Christ, Jesus, fulfilled prophecy by name, date, address and mission so that all may recognize Him and be saved, Baha'u'llah fulfills prophecy.

Baha'u'llah recorded his all-inclusive Revelation in volumes of books. His Peace Plan is the divine medicine for all ills that plague humankind. It addresses every matter, from the philosophical to the scientific. From marriage and family life, to education, to the details of achieving universal peace and prosperity. Baha'u'llah is the healing of nations, that all may find rest.

"Thy name is my healing, O my God, and remembrance of Thee is my remedy. Nearness to Thee is my hope, and love for Thee is my companion. Thy mercy to me is my healing and my succor in both this world and the world to come. Thou, verily, art the All-Bountiful, the All-Knowing, the All-Wise."
—Baha'u'llah

The Twelve Basic Principles of the Baha'i faith

1. Oneness of the world of humanity
2. Independent investigation of the Truth
3. Religion is progressive with all having a common foundation
4. The essential harmony of science and religion
5. Religion is the Cause of Unity
6. The Equality of Men and Women
7. The Elimination of prejudice of all kinds
8. Universal Compulsory Education
9. The Spiritual Solution to the economic problem
10. Universal Auxiliary Language
11. Universal Peace upheld by a Spiritual World Government
12. A UHJ with the Guardian as its President

This great controversy therefore involves both the Proclamation of Baha'u'llah as being of the Holy Blood and lineage and throne-line of King David, whose genealogy was unfurled for the first time at the 9-11, and the simultaneous appearance of Bush as the prophesied King of Terror, who has now become the first American President to lower all American flags at half mass at the death of a pope as well as the first American president to attend a Pope's funeral. Why? Bush wants in office a pope like Pius XII, who had been called "Hitler's Pope" by writers and historians.

This is what Pope John Paul II and his major faction of supporters in the church feared most, and has been expressed in recent news articles and journals. The current Guardian of the Cause, the great grandson of 'Abdu'l-Baha, recently sent the pope an important package containing the Proclamation of Baha'u'llah and the Book, "King of Terror" only a few short months ago on October 16, 2004, which did not go unnoticed.

In two recent articles: "Politics in Red Robes" and "Latest Neocon Target: The Vatican", Bush's designs on politically hijacking the administrative authority in the Catholic Church in order to achieve his political ends and those of his fundamentalist supporters is exposed, as it is also written in the scriptures that "three foul spirits like frogs": one from the mouth of the Beast [American President: UN and news media], one from the mouth of the dragon [Islam and its corrupted clergy], and one from the mouth of the false prophet [Pope and Christian clergy] are now assembling the peoples to the final battle of Armageddon, which is the final battle of this so far 100 years war, begun in August of 1914, with the advent of WWI, and to end with the invasion of Muslim lands, such as Iraq and Iran, with one third of mankind to be killed in one hour of thermonuclear war.

'Abdu'l-Baha tells us that there have been good popes and bad popes. This last pope was an outspoken opponent of both Gulf Wars I and II, against both Bush Sr. and Bush Jr. in their flagrant disregard for international law, and their aggressive first strike war mongering policies.

"How lucky is George Bush that these last six months have seen both the deaths of Pope John Paul II and Yasser Arafat, whom this pope supported in the plight to end the oppression against the Palestinian peoples?"

This pope, as well his supporters, such as Cardinal Lustiger, lived through the atrocities of Hitler and World War II, and saw the Nazi spy network absorbed into what became the foundation of the American CIA, which the Bush family and grandpa Bush has had ties with both the Nazi party and the CIA. This pope was keenly aware of how even, like the traitor Sauroman of Tolkien fame, or Caiaphas the High Priest at the time of Jesus, Pope Pius XII had been seduced to ally himself and the church administration with Hitler, and helped to create the "rat-line" that allowed Nazi War criminals to escape justice in this world by fleeing to Catholic South America in countries such as Argentina and Brazil.

This last pope spoke out against these atrocities, prayed at the wailing wall, and exonerated Galileo in 1992 from being condemned, admitting for the first time in the history of the church that "Truth Cannot contradict Truth", upholding Baha'u'llah's principle that true science and true religion must correspond, and stating that interpretation of the scriptures must be tempered with, and in accord with, scientific fact.

How lucky is George Bush that these last six months have seen both the deaths of Pope John Paul II and Yasser Arafat, whom this pope supported in the plight to end the oppression against the Palestinian peoples? The PLO is now headed by a pro-Bush supporter of Muslim persuasion, whose family (Abu Mazen) has come out of the great violation of the sans-Guardian Covenant-breaking Baha'is. Thus in Bin Laden's eyes, "mouth of the dragon", he sees the sans-guardian Covenant-breakers on Haifa as having hijacked the PLO. Now the pope, who spoke out against Bush, is dead. Though he was old, couldn't they have kept his catheter clean? Nostradamus' Quatrains (experts state) suggest the murder of this pope in order that the "King of Terror" should have his man in place to help assemble the people to Armageddon (Revelation, Chapter 16).

The worst fear for John Paul II and his supporters that survive him is the return of the global threat the likes of Hitler that they themselves lived through, whom Nostradamus spoke of as the second of three major antichrists who would come and take peace from the world. We, as educated and informed Baha'is, know the first is prophesied as Napoleon, and the third as "main" - the Hands. Now only one Hand remains yet alive, but like Ruhiyiyh Khanum and many fundamental Christian clergy, these ones also support the UN and Bush's war of terror. Soon all freedom of religion and freedom of speech shall be suppressed if these atrocities should go unchecked, as it has been said: The only thing necessary for the triumph of evil is for good men to do nothing. Pope John Paul II lamented:

The Relic of the Holy Blood in the City of Bruges

John Paul II was not only strongly opposed to George W. Bush's unprovoked invasion of Iraq but came out vocally against Bush's father's Desert Storm invasion. Speaking to ABC's This Week on April 3, Jim Nicholson said that during his last meeting with the pope in March, before he departed his post as American ambassador to the Vatican to take up the position as secretary of Veterans Affairs, the pope wanted to know where Bush intended to take America in the world with its awesome temporal power. It is no secret that the late pope had no time for Bush and his bellicose and aggressive ways and, according to well-placed journalists for Catholic Italian newspapers whom I spoke to in 2003, the pope commented to some of his closest assistants that what he feared most in Bush was the coming of the Antichrist as prophesized in the Book of Revelation. It was the fear of the arrival of the Antichrist during his priesthood that plagued John Paul II since his earlier years in Poland

[that Hitler had invaded in WWII].

The dream candidate of the neocons for the next pope is the Archbishop of Vienna, Cardinal Christoph Schoenborn [Schoenborn is the favorite disciple of Ratzinger who has now been elected Pope Benedict XVI. Ratzinger is head of the modern Inquisition on dogma and Schoenborn, his favorite disciple is the author of the new Catechism. Ratzinger and Schoenborn stand in the exact same camp]. According to a major neocon media outlet of convenience, The Jerusalem Post, Schoenborn, on a recent visit to the Hebrew University of Jerusalem, echoed the Christian Zionist line of George W. Bush, Tom DeLay, Newt Gingrich, and neocon Catholic and New American centurion Michael Novak. Schoenborn referred to Israel as "God's chosen land" for the Jewish people. Responding to the comments of a clearly pained Palestinian priest, who questioned the cardinal on his support for Israel's usurpation of Palestinian lands and homes, basically said that as a refugee from war time Czechoslovakia he understood the pain of refugees. Commenting further, Schoenborn said that was a matter of international law while the Jews' inheritance of the Holy Land trumped international law because it was prophesized in the Bible and that all Christians should embrace Zionism as the fulfillment of that Biblical prophecy...It will now be in the interests of Bush's extreme right-wing evangelical base (and Bush's Svengali, Karl Rove) to ensure that someone like Schoenborn [Ratzinger] assumes the papacy. For the neocons, Schoenborn [and Ratzinger his mentor] would become a rubber stamp for America's plans for global domination. Like Pope Pius XII who gave a wink and a nod to Adolf Hitler's conquests, Schoenborn would see Washington's continued wars as fulfillment of his interpretation of biblical prophecy. In that respect, Schoenborn would complement Bush's other religious supporters—Pat Robertson, Jerry Falwell, James Dobson, and Sun Myung Moon—and bolster the neocon movement with the might of the Vatican. The result of such a power shift would help bring Latin America, Catholic Europe, Francophone Africa, and parts of Asia firmly within the American sphere of influence.

The nightmare pope for the neocons, their fellow travelers in the Israeli Likud regime, and the evangelical right is both a Frenchman and a Jew. He is the recently retired Archbishop of Paris, a veteran of the faculty of the Sorbonne, and a very close confidant of John Paul II. Cardinal Jean-Marie Lustiger, whose See was the Cathedral of Notre Dame on Paris's Seine River, was born Aaron Lustiger in 1926. At the age of 13, Lustiger was placed in safekeeping with a French Catholic family by his Polish Jewish immigrant parents. Lustiger's mother and father later perished at Auschwitz. At the age of 14, Lustiger converted to Catholicism. Lustiger remains a powerful member of the College of Cardinals and John Paul II considered Lustiger to be his personal liaison to the French government and people.

"Although Lustiger is a supporter of Israel, his unique viewpoints and very office and religion are anathema to the Orthodox rabbis who dictate religious policy in Israel. Lustiger is an enigma to the Orthodox religious figures in Israel: for them Lustiger is an apostate and a potentially dangerous proselytizer.

Unlike Schoenborn, Lustiger would not only continue John Paul II's policies of opposing Bush and the neocons but would ratchet things up a bit. His abhorrence for Bush's preemptive warfare policies stem from his own bitter experiences with Hitler's similar policies that ravaged his native France and all of Europe." (Wayne Madsen, 'Latest Neocon Target: The Vatican'. April 5, 2005)

"Paris' Jean-Marie Lustiger, 78, is the son of Polish Jewish parents who emigrated to France. The Nazis deported his mother to Auschwitz, where she died. Brought up by Catholic guardians, he converted at the age of 13 and changed his name from Aaron to Jean-Marie. He told reporters recently that he considered himself a Jew with 'dual affiliation.'" (Daniel Williams, Alan Cooperman, 'On eve of conclave, cardinals face question: Continuity or change?' The Washington Post Published: Sunday, Apr. 17, 2005)

This is the "schism" that Nostradamus foresees at the time of the passing of Pope John Paul II, the non-Italian pope, the divisions over the Hitler-like policies now exported by the "King of Terror" on a global scale. This division is deep within all the peoples of the world and affects all peoples, including the Catholic peoples who are divided internally over the world war Bush is waging. It is like that old saying about Hitler:

First they came for the Jews

and I did not speak out-- because I was not a Jew.

Then they came for the Catholics
and I did not speak out-- because I was not a Catholic.

Then they came for the trade unionists

and I did not speak out-- because I was not a trade unionist.

Then they came for me-- and there was no one left to speak out for me.

(Martin Niemöller, 1938)

To that end, regarding those of the other persuasion in the church, like Schoenborn: "Now the social agendas of conservative Catholics and Republicans [Bushites] are indistinguishable" (Sidney Blumenthal, 'Politics in Red Robes', April 7, 2005, The Guardian).

This split over international affairs and the war for oil and greed is further magnified as an internal split over religion, by the Proclamation of Baha'u'llah that pope John Paul II had just received only a few months prior to his death.

These Quatrains are even more specific, as Nostradamus names five popes who will succeed a pope that shall rule for 17 years exactly. This did not happen until the 20th century, and the fifth pope, who has now just died of blood-poisoning due to septic shock, is the non-Italian pope that is the fifth on the list, leaving the next pope to be the one who presides during Armageddon, and who comes at the time of this spilt over both politics (Bush) and religion (Baha'u'llah).

*Après le siège tenu dix-sept ans,
Cinq changeront en tel revolu terme:
Puis sera l'un élu du même temps,
Qui des Romains ne sera trop confrème.*

After the See has been held for seventeen years,

Five will change within the same period of time:

Then elected will be One at the same time

*Who the "Romains" will not be too
conforme. (Century V, Quatrain 92)*

Here Nostradamus conforms to the same vision as that contained in the prophecies of St. Malachy, which give only two prophetic names or titles in succession to this last pope. Nostradamus, here, adds these two as being simultaneous; one that is elected by the "Romains" and the other "One at the same time" those same Romains, and their new leader, "Peter the Romain", will not be in conformity with. Obviously what the Roman Catholics are not in conformity with in their catechism is that Baha'u'llah fulfills the prophecy for the second coming of Christ, the Father, from the blood and lineage of King David.

At this time, after the death of Pope John Paul II, Malachy further states that Rome will be destroyed, and the great Judge shall Judge the world, which experts agree refers to the Judgement Day of the World at the advent of the second coming of Christ. It should be noted that Malachy, like Nostradamus, is giving the time frame of when the Good News of Baha'u'llah, Christ come in the Potency of the Everlasting Father seated upon the throne of David that is to last forever (see Is. 9:6-7), is to be proclaimed and projected to all the world, and likewise the simultaneous destruction of Rome, which shall be along with many other cities throughout the world due to the one hour of thermonuclear war that is upon us now, since the 9-11, when every American City population 100,000 or more is to be destroyed in that one hour.

Malachy refers to the last pope to rule at the time of this proclamation of Baha'u'llah and the destruction of Rome as "Peter the Roman" who we can see is the grand Inquisitor and hardliner, the mentor of Schoenborn, Ratzinger. By Peter the “Romain”, “Romain” is meant the catechism that Schoenborn has codified as enforced through the office of the inquisition headed by Ratzinger himself.

Cardinal Joseph Ratzinger, the 78-year-old German bishop closely associated with the papacy of John Paul II, was today named as Benedict XVI, the 265th Pope...

Cardinal Ratzinger has long served as prefect of the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith, the institution once known as the Inquisition. He was known as “God’s rottweiler” for his unswerving defence of Catholic orthodoxy.

He has denounced ...other religions [such as Islam] as “deficient”.

The new pope was elected after just three or four ballots, which is one of the quickest papal elections in history, perhaps beaten only by an election in 1939 [of Hitler’s Pope Pius XII] after two ballots.

(Ratzinger named as Pope Benedict XVI, Staff and agencies, Tuesday April 19, 2005)

He [Ratzinger] was a member of the Hitler youth, and he belonged to a Luftwaffe AA battery. (“Ratzinger as Nazi”, April 19, 2005 by JDC; see also “Ratzinger briefly served in Nazi Army” AP)

This ancient “Romain” theology of Babylonian doctrine of the Incarnate God Lie is in direct opposition to the concept of the second coming of Christ as the descendant of King David that Baha’u’llah fulfills.

This further gives credence to the idea that by ‘Glory of the Olive’, Glory meaning ‘Baha’ and the Olive a reference to the genealogy of King David, that the split in the world today will be between those hardliners who uphold their false doctrines and theologies of the Incarnate God Lie versus the truth of the second coming of Christ in the name of “Baha” of “Baha’i”- OF GLORY-seated upon the throne of David which is to last forever, which is the Glory of God – Baha’u’llah - promised to come in this day today.

Thus the “Romains” include both Catholics and Protestant hardliners and their leaders, such as Ratzinger and Schoenborn and their catechism and theologies that are not in conformity with the truth of God’s plan for the coming of Baha’u’llah, as Nostradamus has foreseen.

Malachy named the popes in enigmatic mottos - a list of prophecies that predate the time of Nostradamus that he would have had access to, as he was supported by both the royalty and church of his day.

For example, the pope preceding John Paul II is named as “the half moon”. John Paul I ruled the church for only 33 days, and the motto, “half moon”, is said to refer to his brief reign, as well as the fact that he was born and died during mid-month, having ruled only about one month in total. The next pope was prophesied of by Malachy as the “toil of the sun”. Pope John Paul II was both born and buried during a solar eclipse, and “toil of the soil” is known as a metaphor for the eclipse of the sun in ancient times. More important than this however, is the fact that Pope John Paul II was born in Poland in the same town as that of Copernicus, who first wrote that the earth revolved around the sun, and that the earth was not the center of the solar system. Copernicus was a Catholic and dedicated his book to the pope of his day. After this, a next pope, a friend of Galileo, was forced under political pressure and the threat of death to have Galileo condemned for supporting Copernicus’ ideas. Not until about 400 years later had this last pope, born from the same town as Copernicus during a solar eclipse, exonerated Galileo in his reign in 1992, thus completing the “toil of the sun” and upholding Baha’u’llah’s principle that true science and true religion must correspond.

The name by Malachy, “Glory of the Olive” again, some experts believe, will be the Messiah Himself, as this is a reference to the lineage of King David, which was anointed in a ceremony with olive oil, and in which case would refer to Baha’u’llah Himself, seated upon David’s throne. Others see a person of Jewish origin who, in fact, is in conformity with the second coming of Christ, and is “of glory”. That is, a Baha’i firm in the Covenant, who will support and promote the true Kingdom of God on earth which continues through Baha’u’llah and ‘Abdu’l-Baha’s sons and successors, titled AGHSAN – BRANCHES, who are the rulers seated upon David’s throne which comes down to us today.

The name listed after that, which is simultaneous with “Glory of the Olive”, is “Peter the Roman” named in Latin as “Petrus Romain”, the same “Romain” term that Nostradamus here uses to state will not be in conformity with the “One at the same time”, suggesting that “Peter Romain” will be a pope who is against the second coming, against Baha’u’llah, and remains strong in the pagan doctrines of the Romain theology that corrupted true Christianity of Jesus and the apostles.

Yet, as Nostradamus foresees, this will also be divisions throughout the whole world as well as within the people of the church and the Christian world as a whole. Not only over the division on Bush's War of Terror but also on the stand taken concerning the proclamation of Baha'u'llah. The truth is that this division already exists within the Catholic people, as it does within the hearts of all Christian people, and for that matter all peoples of faith throughout the world that know this killing spree and evangelical American crusader war for oil and religion is plain wrong, just as Napoleon and Hitler were wrong, wrong, wrong as well.

Experts clearly see the pope who was to rule for 17 years as the 20th century Pope Pius XI who ruled for exactly seventeen years within a day (crowned Pope on February 12, 1922; died February 10, 1939). The fact that he died on the same day as his seventeenth anniversary coronation has led many to suspect he, like many other popes in history, was murdered, especially as he was succeeded by the infamous Pius XII who has been labeled Hitler's Pope.

Was Pius the XI killed to make way for the political hijacking of the church administration by pro-Hitler factions and power brokers - the international banksters of their day? Is Bush now up to the same thing?

At any rate, he is clearly the pope that rules for exactly 17 years to the day. No other pope in all history can match this. He is succeeded by five popes precisely, bringing us to the dire circumstances now confronting us today. These five are: 1) Pius XII (1939-1958); 2) John XXIII (1958-1963); 3) Paul VI (1963-1978), 4) John Paul I (Aug.-Sept. 1978); and finally, 5) John Paul II, (October 16, 1978-April 2, 2005)!

Thus with the finding of the Tomb of Paul - the tomb of the great Roman, the first Roman citizen to support the true Jesus - found February 16, 2005, and the death of the non-Italian pope by septic shock of blood-poisoning, who is clearly the fifth after the only pope in history to rule for 17 years, Nostradamus has completely and clearly dated the death of this last pope to be followed by the split in the church over the war over oil and religion.

This comes at the poignant time of the world wide projection of the message of the Kingdom of Baha'u'llah seated upon David's throne, and the destruction of the cities in nuclear World War III, New York City as one of the first target cities to be nuked. This split typified by the so-called "Peter the Romain" not in conformity with "Glory of the Olive", Baha'u'llah and the Baha'i faith, in the terms of the vision of Malachy.

The death of this pope marks the prophetic milestone by Nostradamus as supported by Malachy, as clearly no other pope, the ONLY non-Italian pope in 455 years since the days of Nostradamus, is so pricelessly referred to. Why? Why does Nostradamus dedicate so many quatrains for the fulfillment of this prophecy? Why?

Because, this SIGN of the PAPAL PORTENT is the FINAL WARNING of Nostradamus! He clearly prophesies that the death of this pope shall signalize the appearance of a "second sun" from out the cloud, which experts agree is the thermonuclear blast! When that first nuke is loosed - all the rest shall follow!!!

*La grande etoile par sept jours brulera,
Nuee fera deux soleils apparoir:
Le gros matin toute nuit hurlera Quand grand pontife changera de terroir:*

The great star [thermo-nuclear blast in that city] will burn for seven days,

The cloud will cause two suns to appear

*The big mastiff will howl all night
When the great pontiff will change country. (Century II, Quatrain 41)*

According to Henry Roberts, the Great Pontiff changing country refers explicitly to the coming of Pope John Paul II, who was again the first non-Italian pope, thus changing country of the pope in 455 years. Edgar Leoni further relates this to the death of the pope and a thermonuclear blast referred to as a "second sun" to appear shortly after. As this pope that has died was from Poland, at the election and crowning of his successor, the papacy will again "change country". Leoni comments, echoing Cheetham and the rest:

All sorts of prodigies are to take place when a Pope dies... It is perhaps worth noting that nuclear explosions have been likened to a "second sun". (Leoni, Nostradamus and His Prophecies (1961), p. 591)

Now that Ratzinger has been elected, the papacy has again changed country from Poland to Germany, as Ratzinger is from Germany and the previous pope was from Poland.

"The Great Mastiff" is an allusion to the United States, UN and its allies (AI-US: Allied US forces), that having been nuked in one of its most important cities will “howl all night”, that is, this will be the excuse needed for further invasions of the world by Bush. In fact, in his “Epistle of Henry”, included in the prophecies between Centuries 7 and 8, Nostradamus explicitly states that this “Great Mastiff” will use this as the excuse to go forth with more destructions and conquests of the world in the King of Terror’s “War of Terror”:

Thereafter, [after the appearance of the “second sun” CII:Q41] the very great Mastiff (“le plus gros matin”), the biggest of curs, will go forth and destroy all, the same old crimes [as Hitler and Napoleon] being perpetrated again (see Leoni, p. 332 and p. 333 for French text and translation).

As Sharon meets with Bush in Texas, and Scott Ritter has declared the US imminent plans to invade Iran, who will be surprised at this last hour, when after the death of this pope, New York City is nuked as we have foretold for over 15 years?

Death of the pope: FINAL WARNING from Nostradamus! Woe to those who have profited off the misery of others. ☞

It is left to the believers under the Provisions of the Covenant to see the Truth and be illumined by It. How blessed are the BUPC that we alone of the world have been placed by God in proximity to Glory. Were each of us to make the supreme effort to do all that is prescribed for us by God in the Holy Writings our Cause would attract the necessary others and the chaos would soon be over. We must focus our energy as finely as Kevin does when he makes a fire with sticks, tinder and string.

Thanks to all who have joined with the Guardian and the House of Justice to do all that they can to bring the Light of God to this darkened sphere. Surely, if we beseech God to allow us to do the things that must be done, He will sufficiently purify us in advance of our effort and finally allow us into the sanctified space. ☞ offer to inquire with them regarding the scriptures and have a “Bible study.” Explain to them that you discovered where Jesus gave only one sign that he was, in fact, the Promised One to come.

Turn to Matthew 12:39-40 and Jesus clearly explains: “the Son of Man will be for three days and three nights in the heart of the earth.”

Show them John 11:9 where Jesus says, “Are there not twelve hours in the day?” So, Jesus is very specific, three days and three nights means 72 hours. Jesus was crucified on Good Question: “Who has found a good way to approach an Adventist about the different Christs spoken of in the NT? Which references do you prefer to use that are especially clear for this? Given that the Adventists are very evangelical in nature, I need to find a good, solid and clear set of proofs that will also be somewhat gentle.... Any ideas?” --Gretchen Answer: First, and above all, with almost every Christian sect is that they believe in the trinity and that Jesus is God. This is the great lie that they all love and perpetuate through countless doctrines and theologies that separate them into the various sects but unite them in corruption. To teach anyone who is a part of these sects, whichever one it might be, you first have pull the rug out from under them. How can Jesus be God when Jesus prayed to God as is recorded throughout the New Testament? How can Jesus be God when it says in the first verse of Revelation: “The revelation of Jesus Christ which God gave to him...”

Friday before the sun went down and was put into the tomb. On Sunday before the sun comes up, the tomb is discovered empty. This is a time period of only 36 hours, half the time that Jesus gave as his only sign. So either Jesus was a big fake, or he was referring to the resurrection of another body.

In the next issue we will continue this explanation and show how this other body is the body of believers. This is where you want to start in the Christian rug-pulling process.

If Jesus is God he would have just prayed to himself and given himself his Revelation.

Seventh Day Adventists believe in what they call the “Three Great Events” which aren’t unique to the Adventists, but is the foundation of their belief: the creation of Adam and Eve, the crucifixion of Jesus, and Jesus’ resurrection. They also believe in the inerrancy of the scriptures, meaning the Bible is the Word of God and nothing in the Bible is wrong. That being the case,
