Baha'u'llah anticipated "World Super State"

On June 30 or July 1, the UN's role in Iraq is scheduled to go into effect. This shift of control to the UN-dominated plan locks into place the UN building in New York City (the seat of the beast) as the central target, as the Baha'is Under the Provisions of the Covenant have explained previously.

The US ambassador to the UN, John Negroponte, is now scheduled to be transferred as US ambassador to Iraq. It is the UN who will appoint the new Iraqi regime and then oversee the transition toward elections in Iraq by Dec. 15, 2005.

The UN resolution allowing a US-controlled NATO/UN military force to maintain a consistent presence of force in Iraq is also to go into effect. This transition is simultaneous with Spain and other countries pulling out of the region, only in the face of a multinational force under the auspices of the UN resolution controlled by the US to continue military force in Iraq.

In effect, the US has created a destabilized mess anticipated in the prophecies of God.

Bin Laden, who has the nuclear bomb (as well as other pro Saddam loyalists), has warned that other nations must withdraw support from the attack in Iraq within three months or face more attacks in their homelands. Arafat has called for all the nations of the world to oppose the US support of Israel. The UN involvement in both Jerusalem and Baghdad, the two cities of the two Christs, Jesus and Baha'u'llah, and its failure to bring peace and justice to the region, shows why it is to be destroyed for the double standard against the Muslim peoples.

The World Order people of Bush and Kerry (and those behind the scenes) also want to see the UN destroyed in New York so they can establish their World Order – A World Super State – in the wake of the nuking of New York and a limited nuclear exchange to follow.

June 30 deadline for UN control of Iraq

By Colin

At a recent Baha'i forum in Colorado, the group was discussing what type of current events could bring about the nuclear destruction of New York City. One of the conclusions we came to, was that power in Iraq needed to be transferred to the UN. Otherwise, why would the Muslims aspire to blow it up with nuclear weapons?

Bush has been very tight-lipped as to who power would be transferred to on June 30th. Just before the forum, the papers began to carry articles that stated sure enough! The UN is who George W. was transferring power to. The Xinhua News Agency, a major Chinese daily, reports:

"In a major policy shift, US President George W. Bush on Friday signaled support for a UN plan which called for an interim government to take over power in Iraq on June 30."

Apparently, the UN will appoint a governing council comprised of Iraqis it wants to sit on that council. China View reports: "According to the proposal, the new government, led by a prime minister, a president and two vice presidents, would be chosen by the UN, the current Interim Governing Council, the coalition and a selected group of Iraqi judges."

The UN will also take over all

World Super State

This "World Super State" is the Order anticipated by Baha'u'llah that Shoghi Effendi explains in "Goal of a New World Order" on pg. 39 of "World Order of Baha'u'llah".

Shoghi Effendi further explains that this "Order" anticipated by Baha'u'llah is NOT the Baha'i Commonwealth and "by no means" refers to the Institutions of either the Guardianship or of the UHJ. No.

This "Order" is a secular world Order anticipated by Baha'u'llah and the prophecies of Revelation to precede the establishment of the Kingdom of God on earth where it is written:

"The kingdom of this world has become the Kingdom of our Lord and of his Christ." (Rev 12 RSV)

The Greek word here for "Kingdom" is singular showing that just prior to the full blossoming of the Kingdom of God on earth, there will be one government (secular) in place of the Kingdom of this world. This is what Bush and his supporters and successors are establishing, now at this time. Kerry is just as much in favor of it as Bush, but as Bush has opened the bottomless pit, so-to-speak by toppling Saddam and attacking where the "great River Euphrates" is prophesied (see Rev. 9:16), this disaster will forever be known as the Bush legacy.

Shoghi Effendi explains in answer to the question of a "World Super State" :

"As regards the International Executive referred to by the Guardian in his 'Goal of a New World Order', it should be noted that this statement refers by no means to the Baha'i Commonwealth of the future, but simply to that world government which will herald the advent and lead to the final establishment of the World Order of Baha'u'llah.

The formation of this International Executive, which corresponds to the executive head or board in present-day national governments, is but a step leading to the Baha'i world government of the future, and hence should not be identified with either the institution of the Guardianship or that of the International House of Justice." (17 March, 1934, to two believers cf. Shoghi Effendi: Peace, pg. 193)

Bush intends for himself (and his successors to the American presidency) to become the International Executive.

"This election year 2004 is more than just an American election, it is a power struggle for World Executive spoken of here in the writings."

This election year 2004 is more than just an American election, it is a power struggle for World Executive spoken of here in the writings.

Bush's motivation is not only oil but also Religion. He sees his enemies as "soulless". He is a fundamentalist Christian believing in both the "Five Fundamentals" of Christianity" and "Dispensationalism", which the writings of Bob Woodward, Michael Ortiz Hill and others testify.

A White House official press release dated May 1, 2003, states:

"NEWS BRIEF: 'President Bush Announces Combat Operations in Iraq Have Ended',

"In the words of the prophet Isaiah, "To the captives, 'come out,' -- and to those in darkness, 'be free.'" [Isaiah 49:9, NIV]

"Even though the President seemed to be applying this verse to the 'captive' people of Iraq, the fact is that this verse was spoken by the True Messiah, Jesus Christ, as He described 'Israel's restoration in the millennial kingdom' [Footnote to passage from Ryrie Study Bible, KJV]. Thus, Bush is twisting Scripture in an attempt to adapt it to this current event in Iraq.

Gibson's "Passion" misses the mark

(The following was originally written for the Missoulian which, despite numerous requests, refused to print it.)

By Victor

he one important fact in one of this year's most popular films, Passion of the Christ, is it portrays that Jesus spoke in Aramaic.

But Mel Gibson completely bypasses the point of the historic event he so graphically sought to illustrate.

In Matthew, Chapter 6 (KJV), Jesus instructs his apostles to pray for the coming of the Kingdom. In the verse, "For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory forever. Amen", as well as in other verses throughout the New Testament, "glory" is the English word for the Aramaic, "Baha'i". This is important, as most people have never heard of the Baha'i Faith. But Jesus uttered it with his own lips, and told those who would listen to await its coming.

Gibson's interpretation focuses on the physical crucifixion of Jesus' body. Jesus teaches, "The flesh is of no avail, it is the words which I speak to you that are spirit and life." (John 6:63)

A film critic from the New York Times said the movie does nothing to emphasize the message of Jesus (which is the true spirit of Christianity), but only condemns Jesus once again to the same fate he suffered two thousand years ago.

The crucifixion practice was the Jewish and Roman way of degrading and cursing their enemy, and thus this movie only gives Jesus' persecutors another victory two thousand years later.

The message of Jesus was for the coming of the Kingdom of God on Earth.

"I must preach the good news of the Kingdom of God...for I was sent for this purpose." (Luke 4:43)

The Kingdom of God is a world civilization devoid of war and suffering of which all people, all races and all nations are a part. Jesus taught this, and revealed the name of the person who would bring this Kingdom in the future.

"For whoever is ashamed of me and of my words...of him will the son of man also be ashamed when he comes in the glory of his Father (Baha'u'llah)." (Mark 8:38)

This is the spiritual message of "...the movie does nothing to emphasize the message of Jesus (which is the true spirit of Christianity), but only condemns Jesus once again to the same fate he suffered two thousand years ago."

the Kingdom, which the people are to understand. Not the morbid obsession with Jesus' physical crucifixion of which he said was of no avail.

Jesus gave only one sign that he was the Christ—the sign of the prophet Jonah:

"For as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of a whale, so also shall the son of man be for three days and three nights in the heart of the earth." (Matthew 2:40)

The physical body of Jesus did not fulfill this sign, as it was only after two nights and one day that his tomb was discovered empty.

But the body of believers, the apostles, died and all fell away from him Thursday night, the night before the crucifixion, and resurrected in their belief three days and three nights later, on Sunday night.

It is written that the true body of Christ is the body of believers:

"I complete what is lacking in Christ's afflictions for the sake of his body, that is, the church, [body of believers]." (Colossians 1:24)

Today, the actual Kingdom of God is here. It was brought by the second coming of Christ, Baha'u'llah, in an everlasting dynasty of descendants of King David seated at the head of the true "House of the Lord" as prophesied in the book of Isaiah.

Now, the four winds of destruction are being released from the "Great River Euphrates" which flows through Iraq.

"Release the four angels who are bound at the great river Euphrates' so the four angels were released who had been held ready for the hour, the day, the month and the year to kill a third of mankind." (Rev. 9:14-15)

This is the message of Jesus for the Kingdom of God. The true message that isn't about to be struck by lightning as the actor who portrayed Jesus in the film was struck on the movie set in Italy. For being struck by lightning has always been a symbol of God's wrath.

"And he said to them, 'I saw Satan fall like lightning from Heaven.'"

(Luke 10:18) ب

World Super State

However, the main point of quoting this passage is that it is Messianic, and it comes from a very large Messianic portion of Isaiah!"

People fail to understand the mindset of President Bush. In his recent press conference he mentions the "soul" of the people in both America and Iraq. In the past he has referred to his enemies as "soulless" and stated that God will bring the victory. He is a deeply religious man, with a vision – a religious vision, not unlike the vision of George Washington that was recorded long ago in "Stars and Stripes" magazine. Thus this is a war fought over oil AND religion. This has been prophesied from long ago by the Hebrew prophets and in the Book of Revelation of Jesus Christ.

Furthermore, Dr. Jensen has explained all of this in explicit detail in the early 70's through the 80's and 90's. (See his book, "Revelation Explained" (1996) for more information at www.entrybytroops.org.)

As an alcoholic and drug addict who found salvation, Bush is an avid reader and believer of fundamentalist Christian Bible prophecy of the "end times." Iraq is clearly the same area of ancient Babylon, and with messianic vision, Bush is going forward with his cronies to help usher in Christ's promised Kingdom - the way he sees it (wrongly) - with force in the Middle East. In this he has many supporters.

About half of the American population is fundamentalist in thinking, adhering to the Five Fundamentals of Christianity. In truth none of their beliefs are scriptural, but in fact are "against" Christ, and promote not the Kingdom of God but a perverted tyranny of man and the devil that only masquerades as so-called 'Christian'.

Jesus would NEVER do what they are doing and are about to do!

The current war, which is a world war, is being acted out purposely by the leadership as religious vision from the scriptures fueled by oil greed. The "war on terror" for him is a war against evil and the anti-christ; the same evil forces Reagan spoke of outwardly while in office during the first eight years of the rule of George Bush I.

President Bush is a misguided soul, like Nebuchadnezzar of the past, who deserves the correct guidance from the true people of God who are deeply educated to God's real plan, one of peaceful means: "they will beat the swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks." (see Is. 2)

He is like the Nebuchadnezzars and the Titus Caesars of the past. And like that of the Mongols, those "punishers" raised up to destroy and terrorize the people of God who have broken their covenants and who in the end, after wrecking the people who have violated the Covenant, either he himself or his successors will embrace the true faith of God for their day. He is a misguided soul in turmoil. And like Nebuchadnezzar who lost his mind and ate grass like a cow and then later converted, he and his successors to office of the American presidency have now moved the country of America into the International Arena of the Middle East permanently until the end and destruction of this country.

At present, Bush surrounds the countries of the Middle East, occupying Turkey, Israel and Iraq. He surrounds Lebanon and Syria. In Iraq and Afghanistan he surrounds Iran. In Afghanistan and allied with India he surrounds Pakistan. Both Syria and Iran are targeted now as next fronts in the region. In the new Book, "Endgame", all this is laid out once again in chess terms.

Bush has declared that Iraq is only ONE theater, and one battle in the larger War on Terror. This war is World War III. It is to last for a long while, if Bush and his successors are left to their own devices. But God has other plans. It is leading to nuclear Armageddon which shall be the final battle of this war, which shall come swiftly and last ONE HOUR – the amount of time it takes for a nuclear exchange between the super power of East and West. Every city in the United States with a population of 100,000 or more is to be destroyed. In ONE HOUR a third of mankind will be killed.

As prophesied, Christ has come in the potency of the Everlasting Father seated upon the throne of King David in the person of the human temple of Baha'u'llah. His successor, the true IBC/UHJ, is now alive and functioning in the world with a Davidic King, descendant of Baha'u'llah (a great, great grandson), as its president.

Weekly Baha'i TV series focuses on world events, prophecy

By Kay

As Victor pencils in the final touches to the outline of the show he is about to host, others make last-minute adjustments to lighting, the date that will appear on the screen, audio controls, and tweak the opening shot. It's another Tuesday evening at the production studios of downtown MCAT, a local cable access television station in this western Montana college town.

It's seconds away from five o'clock, countdown to the hour-long show, "Baha'i Forum Live".

Now in its second year running, the show is a spin-off of award-winning "Baha'i Phone-In LIVE!" hosted by Neal, Guardian of the Baha'i Faith, which aired prime time every Friday for ten years. The long-time series, featuring current events, prophecy and the Baha'i Faith, and guest speakers, allowed viewers to call and voice their questions and comments over the air, some days into the wee hours of the morning. The show was eventually broadcast live over the Internet and could be viewed and heard around the world—real time.

Indeed, the "bowl", Dr. Leland Jensen's (the seventh angel's) explanations and commentaries, was poured into the air (Rev. 16:17, RVS). This is the spirit and life of Jesus returned to all who eagerly await him that they might see him—his words—and be saved. (Hebrews 9: 28)

Like its predecessor, "Baha'i Forum Live" opens with an overview of the basic tenets of the Baha'i Faith. It then points to current world events and relevant prophesies which Neal, who has made two powerful guest appearances on the show, had laid the groundwork

Ready Victor? "Five, four, three, two..."

"The seventh angel poured his bowl into the air, and a great voice came out of the temple, from the throne, saying, "It is done!"
(Rev. 17, KJV)

Shira and Kay prepare a shot of visual aids.

for since 1992, with a hundred percent accuracy—date for date, prophecy by prophecy, week after week.

Prophesies ultimately point to how the four winds of destruction will be released from the great river Euphrates that flows through Iraq (Rev. 9:14), where Baha'u'llah was imprisoned. They are being fulfilled today, as the war in the mid-east continues to unfold.

Recently, the show has taken an in-depth look at Christian subjects, namely the Five Fundamentals of Christianity embraced by Bush, which will be discussed in a series in upcoming issues of the Noonday Sun.

Producing the TV series has been a community effort—a learning experience for us all. From hosting to tuning in at home and offering tips, important roles have been played in getting the Word of God in the air.

In all we've done a great job, though often reminding our viewers that it's the Message, and not the people behind it, that's perfect. And that's the beauty of live television.

World Super State

The nuking of New York will be the opening of the gateway of opportunity for American forces to invade the rest of the countries that it now surrounds in the Middle East on the target list.

This nuclear war will give birth to the "World Super State" anticipated by Baha'u'llah and foretold in Holy Scriptures. Through the teaching effort of the true Baha'is, reinforced by the Legions of the Covenant—the 144,000—we will be successful and victorious in transforming the "satanic strength" of the world into the "heavenly power" prophesied and promised by Baha'u'llah in His Holy Writings. The true Covenant of the Baha'i Faith shall be adopted as "the state religion of sovereign powers" (see World Order of Baha'u'llah for more) and peace on earth shall be established with justice for all. The forces of light destined to conquer and overcome the forces of darkness, suppression and ignorance, war and tyranny!

Make no mistake, the outcome of this conflagration is known. One third shall die in one hour, and the four beast countries shall be purified into four living creatures – spiritual – and shall elect the Supreme Tribunal, which shall bring peace to the world.

All this has been foretold. The people want to know WHY this is happening to them. The answer is simple: it is BECAUSE they are ALL in violation of the Covenant of God.

God has allowed this current war to occur under the misguided leadership of the American president raised up as a punishment to the people who abandoned God for their false, man-made religions in the corrupt churches and the Incarnate God-Lie. Jesus told the people (in the Lord's Prayer) to pray to God, the Father, not to himself. They are all in violation of the Covenant. Those who survive will be like the Jews who survived Nebuchadnezzar's fires of destruction and will come out on the other side purified of all corruptions and defilements. From that time forward the Jews never had any other God before them but the One True Invisible God.

Now the Christians are the chosen people. Chosen for destruction and purification. Chosen to receive Christ in El Baha—Christ on His return, Baha'u'llah.

This year marks the great event as our world enters the next phase and transition from nationalism to internationalism. We should all be so very thankful that God has seen fit to take us all into His confidence to show us how He is to establish His Kingdom all throughout the entire world.

"My God, the Object of my adoration, the Goal of my desire, the All-Bountiful, the Most Compassionate! All life is of Thee and all power lieth within the grasp of Thine omnipotence. Whosoever Thou exaltest is raised above the angels, and attaineth the station: "Verily, We uplifted him to a place on high!"; and whosoever Thou dost abase is made lower than dust, nay, less than nothing.

"O Divine Providence! Though wicked, sinful, and intemperate, we still seek from Thee a "seat of truth," and long to behold the countenance of the Omnipotent King. It is Thine to command, and all sovereignty belongeth to Thee, and the realm of might boweth before Thy behest. Everything Thou doest is pure justice, nay, the very essence of grace. One gleam from the splendors of Thy Name, the All-Merciful, sufficeth to banish and blot out every trace of sinfulness from the world, and a single breath from the breezes of the Day of Thy Revelation is enough to adorn all mankind with a fresh attire.

"Vouchsafe Thy strength, O Almighty One, unto Thy weak creatures, and quicken them who are as dead, that haply they may find Thee and may be led unto the ocean of Thy guidance, and may remain steadfast in Thy Cause. Should the fragrance of Thy praise be shed abroad by any of the divers tongue of the world, out of the East or out of the West, it would, verily, be prized and greatly cherished. If such tongues, however, be deprived of that fragrance, they assuredly would be unworthy of any mention, be they words or thoughts. "We beg of Thee, O Providence, to show Thy way unto all men, and to guide them aright. Thou art, verily, the Almighty, the Most Powerful, the All-Knowing, the All-Seeing."

—Baha'u'llah

The teachers of the Cause, alone, shall be victorious as they are those who shall overcome.

Deadline

the affairs of establishing elections, and rebuilding the government into a democracy.

"The United Nations will have a central role, as now, in developing the program and machinery for political transition to full Iraqi democracy," said British Prime Minister Tony Blair.

Of course, all of this will be under the close watch of Washington and its UN ambassadors. President Bush has said, "Our coalition partners will continue to work with the United Nations to prepare for nationwide elections that will choose a new government in January of 2005."

More recently it has been announced that John Negroponte, the former UN ambassador who was instrumental in promoting all of the UN resolutions about Iraq, will become the new US chief in Iraq. [In an interesting side note, Negroponte is no stranger to US intervention. As US ambassador to Honduras in the eighties, he played a key role in supporting the right-wing paramilitary Contra death squads led by the Honduran president General Gustavo Alvarez Martínez. (Martinez, a brutal dictator trained at the School of the Americas in Georgia, was later assassinated by his own army.) These Contra death squads were fighting in Nicaragua attempting to overthrow the Nicaraguan Sandanista government in a proxy war completely funded by Washington. Later Negroponte, because of his involvement with the Contras, was implicated in the Iran-Contra scandal.]

With the UN taking power in Iraq, this creates the exact scenario required for the UN to be nuked!

"The United Nations will have a central role, as now, in developing the program and machinery for political transition to full Iraqi democracy."

—British Prime Minister Tony Blair.

When the attacks on the World Trade Towers occurred on September 11, most Americans did not know that on that date in 1973, the US overthrew the democratically elected Argentinian Government of Salvador Allende and installed Augusto Pinochet, who was later charged with crimes against humanity for his horrific human rights violations.

Now, with the United States overthrowing the government of a Muslim country in what George W. Bush—a fundamentalist Christian—calls a crusade, and turning power over to the US-dominated UN, the stage is set for the final scenario of the war of Armageddon, to begin with the nuking of the UN building in New York City. ☩

"BY Him Who is the Great Announcement! The All-Merciful is come invested with undoubted sovereignty. The Balance hath been appointed, and all them that dwell on earth have been gathered together. The Trumpet hath been blown, and lo, all eyes have stared up with terror, and the hearts of all who are in the heavens and on the earth have trembled, except them whom the breath of the verses of God hath quickened, and who have detached themselves from all things." (Proc. Baha'u'llah p. 99)

"For centuries and cycles humanity has been engaged in war and conflict. ... Man needlessly kills a thousand fellow creatures, becomes a hero and is glorified through centuries of posterity. A great city is destroyed in one day by a commanding general. How ignorant, how inconsistent is humankind! If a man slays another man, we brand him as a murderer and criminal and sentence him to capital punishment, but if he kills one hundred thousand men, he is a military genius, a great celebrity, a Napoleon idolized by his nation. If a man steals one dollar, he is called a thief and put into prison; if he rapes and pillages an innocent country by military invasion, he is crowned a hero. How ignorant is humankind! Ferocity does not belong to the kingdom of man. It is the province of man to confer life, not death. It behooves him to be the cause of human welfare, but inasmuch as he glories in the savagery of animalism, it is an evidence that divine civilization has not been established in human society. Material civilization has advanced unmistakably, but because it is not associated with divine civilization, evil and wickedness abound. In ancient times if two nations were at war twelve months, not over twenty thousand men would be killed; now the instruments of death have become so multiplied and perfected that one hundred thousand can be destroyed in a day. In three months during the Russo-Japanese War one million perished. This was undreamed of in former cycles. The cause is the absence of divine civilization."
(Abdu'l-Baha, The Promulgation of Universal Peace, p. 103)
